For those of you who understand even a few words of Tamil, the title of this film means — “If you scream, I’ll slit your throat (Thay).” Thay (an underworld term for a contract killer) is a 16 year old girl who travels from Mumbai to Chennai because she hopes to pay back her debt to a criminal named Machaan (Vinod Kulkarni). He is a powerful don who holds the contract on her life, so she needs to pay his debt within the next six months by taking money from rich people and giving it to the poor. Machaan hasn’t contacted the girl for years, but with her death he has now the opportunity to kill her. He pays Thay a visit, but she meets his deadline by cutting the throats of three people. At last, she meets him in front of a police station and has to pay him his money. He ties her up and leaves her for the police. The police commissioner, T.R.R Venkataraman (R. Madhavan) is a colleague of Machaan. Machaan is fond of Venkat (who he thinks is up to no good), so he has put a contract out on his life for a bribe of 10,000. After realizing that Machaan is a don, Venkat comes to rescue the girl. Thay takes Venkat to Machaan. Machaan says he will kill the girl if his friend (Kamal Haasan) pays him an enormous amount. After receiving the money, Machaan tells them that he has only one condition — that Venkat have sex with Thay. Venkat says that this is impossible because Thay doesn’t know what he looks like. Machaan says that he knows how Venkat looks like, because he has seen him naked. He has a video which has photos of the two of them together. He also says that because he is aware of Venkat’s likes and dislikes, he has a photograph which is near to Venkat’s heart. Venkat’s brother, Suresh (Neetu Chandra), has an affair with Thay and talks her
